STAINED GLASS FOR HOSPITAL CHAPELS, MEDITATION AND PRAYER ROOMS

If you are looking to add beauty and warmth to the prayer room in your hospital, consider Stained Glass Inc.

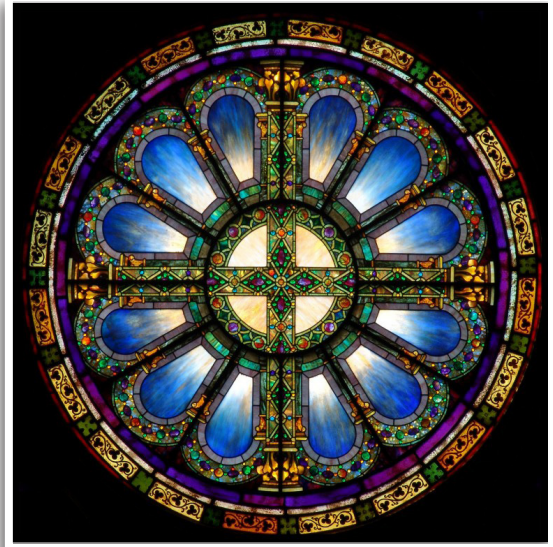

Help bring comfort to your chapel's visitors by utilizing Stained Glass Inc.'s custom stained glass designs. The warm, rich colors and unique lighting associated with stained glass can serve as a way to help relieve anxiety of nervous friends and family members who have a loved one in the hospital, or even comfort apprehensive patients. In addition, beautiful stained glass panels can provide joyous and inspiring images.

Incorporate custom stained glass in the entry of your meditation space with a stained glass door or side panels, or put traditional stained glass window inserts inside. Our window inserts have the ability to be completely customized to fit your exact needs. Each of these windows will provide color, comfort and contour in easy care stained glass.

No windows? No problem. Take advantage of Stained Glass Inc.'s internally-lit designs, or "windowless windows", and receive all of the benefits of naturally lit stained glass without the need of sunlight. Browse our wide selection of both religious and non-religious designs to choose what would best fit your hospital chapel, or create something entirely new. Our designers will gladly work with you to design exactly what you want.

WHY STAINED GLASS FOR YOUR HOSPITAL CHAPEL, MEDITATION ROOM OR PRAYER ROOM?

The medical profession has long understood that spiritual care plays an important role in physical wellness and recovery. This care includes providing a quiet, meditative space for those who have a religious preference as well as those who are spiritual but with no religious preference.

THE MIND-BODY-SPIRIT CONNECTION

The increased awareness of the mind-body-spirit connection has lead to a new openness to spirituality and health care. In a stressful health care environment, hospital chapels, meditation rooms or prayer rooms offer patients, employees and visitors a quiet refuge for prayer, meditation and worship. Stained glass art from Stained Glass Inc. can help create a peaceful worship space.

Hospital chapels and prayer rooms are designed to allow visitors and employees a refuge of peace and calm. Stained glass artwork can help bestow that peace.
